

National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls
Enquête nationale sur les femmes et les filles autochtones disparues et assassinées

Important Information

The National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls will be in your area

To all families and survivors in Saskatchewan:

The National Inquiry will have a team made up of staff from Health, Community Relations, and Legal on the ground for Community Visits for the week of August 7, 2017. The team will be reaching out to those of you in the Regina and Saskatoon areas who would like to participate in the National Inquiry.

These community visits will help us all to plan and prepare for Community Hearings that are part of the overall Truth Gathering Process that will take place the week of November 20, 2017, in Saskatoon.

Regina, SK: August 7-8, 2017

Saskatoon, SK: August 9-10, 2017

Contact Morene Gabriel, Community Liaison Officer, at 1 (204) 291-5193 or at m.gabriel@mmiwg-ffada.ca, or Penny Kerrigan, Community Liaison Officer, at 1 (778) 238-6876 or at p.kerrigan@mmiwg-ffada.ca, to find out more about how you can meet with the National Inquiry to get information on how you can participate.

It is important to note that families, survivors and loved ones have choices in how to share, in a comfortable and safe way. There are many ways to participate, including before a Commissioner in a private and confidential hearing without any cameras present.
