The National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls STATEMENT GATHERING event in Lower Post, BC

Lower Post, British Columbia: February 28 – March 1, 2018

The National Inquiry will be hosting a statement gathering at the Elders Six Plex in Lower Post, British Columbia. Community Events will be held in the Denetia Elementary School.

Family members and survivors that want to share their truth can contact Jamie Spring Chief at 403-389-8347 or by email at j.springchief@mniwg-ffada.ca. Walk-in statement gathering will be available. A Commissioner will not be present in the room, but the audio and video collected will be reviewed by them.

The public are welcome to attend the opening ceremonies and closing ceremonies. However, as statement gatherings are private in nature, public and media cannot attend the statement gathering sessions.

The Commissioners' mandate is to examine and report on the systemic causes of all forms of violence against Indigenous women, girls and LGBTQ2S people in Canada by looking at patterns and underlying factors. The mandate also includes examining institutional practices and policies implemented in response to violence experienced by Indigenous women and girls, including examining police investigation practices and responses, as part of this public investigation.
