LOCATION: Siniktarvik Hotel and Conference Centre
2-4 Arvinggak St, Rankin Inlet, NU, XoC oGo, Canada

The National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls will have Community Hearings in Rankin Inlet during the week of February 19, 2018. There will be three days of Community Hearings at the Siniktarvik Hotel and Conference Centre and will begin on Tuesday, February 20 and conclude on Thursday, February 22, 2018. The hearings will start at 9 a m CT and are expected to finish at 5pm CT each day.

All media attending the Community Hearings of the National Inquiry Truth Gathering Process must have an accreditation card to enter the hearings room and a colour coded lanyard will be provided to you. It must be visible at all times. It does not provide access to private hearings rooms, to rooms where the health team or other staff are located.

WHO IS ENTITLED TO PRESS ACCREDITATION? Accreditation is granted only to journalists (critics, columnists, reporters, photographers, documentary filmmakers) who cover the issue of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls or survivors of violence. Journalists must represent a recognized media outlet. YouTubers, bloggers or those involved with the blogosphere will not be granted accreditation. To obtain your media accreditation, please fill out the form below.

RESTRICTIONS: Accreditation does not authorize media to take photographs or images using devices such as cameras, smartphones or hand-held cameras inside the community hearing room(s). Only the official National Inquiry video cameras, the media pool camera and an on-line media camera will be permitted to film inside.

However there may be an opportunity to take photos of the Commissioners at the beginning of the hearing. Media will be seated in a specific area within the community hearing room. A buffer zone, around certain areas of the location will be reserved for families and people involved in the Inquiry. A map will be provided. Please respect those areas.
