

Media Advisory

The Chief Commissioner of the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls to address the Carrier Sekani Family Services during the Annual General Assembly

Prince George BC, September 7, 2017, PDT

Mary Teegee, Executive Director, Family Services of the Carrier Sekani Family Services (CSFS) has extended an invitation to Marion Buller, Chief Commissioner of the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls to address members and staff at their 27th Annual General Assembly on Thursday, September 7th at 1:00pm PDT.

The address will also be livestreamed on the CSFC Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/CarrierSekaniFamilyServices/>

Location:

Nadelh Whut'en Yah Administration Building – Nadelh Whut'en Nation Community

Mary Teegee and Marion Buller may be available to speak to media. Please send an email to marlaena@csfs.org to arrange.

About CSFS

Carrier Sekani Family Services (CSFS) has been working hard to offer holistic wellness services for our member Nations for over 25 years. Our organization was created to reassert First Nations control of justice, health, social and family services, all of which have suffered through the process of colonization.

Released by:

National Inquiry Communications
604-561-8520

Carrier Sekani Family Services
1-250-562-3591
987 4th Avenue, Prince George V2L 3H7

Email: b.bolton@mimiwg-ffada.ca