

Legal Services / Services juridiques
P.O. Box/C.P. 6000
Fredericton, NB E3B 5H1
Tel/Tél. (506) 453-2222
Fax/Télé. (506) 453-3275

VIA EMAIL: b.zandberg@mmiwg-ffada.ca

Our File: 3693-LIT

December 13, 2018

Brian Zandberg, Registrar
National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered
Indigenous Women and Girls
P.O. Box 500, Station A
Vancouver, BC V6C 2N3

Dear Mr. Zandberg:

Re: Submissions of the Province of New Brunswick pursuant to Rule 33 of the Legal Path: Rules of Respectful Practice for the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

Please find enclosed a list of materials upon which the Commissioners may rely to make findings of fact as they consider relevant to the discharge of their mandate pursuant to Rule 33 of the Legal Path: Rules of Respectful Practice for the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. These materials relate to reports, programs, policies, services and actions of the Province of New Brunswick and others that may be relevant to the Commissioner's mandate and which will be referred to in the Province of New Brunswick's written closing submissions.

The list of materials includes hyperlinks, where available. In addition, PDF's of all the documents referenced are attached.

Should there be any issues accessing the enclosed materials, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Maya Hamou and Heather Hobart".

Maya Hamou and Heather Hobart
Solicitors and Agents for the Attorney General of New Brunswick

HMH/jf

Enclosures

cc: Tenley Desroches (via email: t.desroches@mmiwg-ffada.ca)

