

Media Accreditation and Important Information

Part I: Community Hearings of the Truth Gathering Process

Moncton, New Brunswick –February 13-14, 2018

LOCATION: Four Points by Sheraton Moncton
40 Lady Ada Boulevard, Moncton NB E1K0E3

The National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls will have Community Hearings in Moncton, New Brunswick during the week of February 12, 2018. There will be two days of Community Hearings at the Four Points by Sheraton Moncton and will begin on Tuesday, February 13 and conclude on Wednesday, February 14, 2018. The hearings will start at 9 a.m. AST and are expected to finish at 5pm AST each day.

All media attending the Community Hearings of the National Inquiry Truth Gathering Process must have an accreditation card to enter the hearings room and a colour coded lanyard will be provided to you. It must be visible at all times. It does not provide access to private hearings rooms, to rooms where the health team or other staff are located.

WHO IS ENTITLED TO PRESS ACCREDITATION? Accreditation is granted only to journalists (critics, columnists, reporters, photographers, documentary filmmakers) who cover the issue of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls or survivors of violence. Journalists must represent a recognized media outlet. YouTubers, bloggers or those involved with the blogosphere will not be granted accreditation. To obtain your media accreditation, please fill out the form below.

RESTRICTIONS: Accreditation does not authorize media to take photographs or images using devices such as cameras, smartphones or hand-held cameras inside the community hearing room(s). Only the official National Inquiry video cameras, the media pool camera and an on-line media camera will be permitted to film inside.

However there may be an opportunity to take photos of the Commissioners at the beginning of the hearing. Media will be seated in a specific area within the community hearing room. A buffer zone, around certain areas of the location will be reserved for families and people involved in the Inquiry. A map will be provided. Please respect those areas.
