Knowledge Keeper, Expert and Institutional Hearing:
Family and Child Welfare – family supports and domestic violence

Vancouver, BC - The National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls will continue with Part II and III of the Truth Gathering process by hosting a Knowledge Keeper, Expert and Institutional Hearing on Family and Child Welfare, which will explore family supports and domestic violence.

Part II and Part III of the Truth Gathering Process focuses on the testimony of Knowledge Keepers, experts and institutional representatives. As part of the hearing process, National Inquiry lawyers and Parties with Standing have the opportunity to ask questions of witnesses or cross-examine them for clarity. These hearings are conducted differently than the Community Hearings where families and survivors shared their truths. Please note that no personal statements or evidence from survivors or loved ones will be gathered during the hearing.

This event will take place in Winnipeg, Manitoba at the Fort Garry Hotel from Monday, October 1 to Friday, October 5, 2018. There are seven witnesses scheduled to appear. The hearing is open to the public.

A schedule of events and ceremony agenda will be available on our website:
